 Yes, it would be VERY nice Mary!!! ***

 Anyone know anything of this website? Kay ***

My husband was saying it would be nice if I could meet up with you in Cornwall -- I don't know if it's possible yet. Anyway, I was moving some items out of my way on the floor and found a printout of something I downloaded months ago (perhaps even a year ago) from the Cornwall site. I thought it had the website, but I could not find it. It is the following:

The Cornish Mining Index (quite lengthy).

It is copyrighted by Ian Richards, Higher Stanbeer, Henwood, Liskeard, Cornwall, PL14 5BH, UK. One of the introductory paragraphs reads as follows:

Since its inception in September 1993, the index has grown to over 14,000 entries, and is expected to grow at a similar rate in future years, with the principal sources to date being:

- Census returns
- 1797 Tinnners List
- Strays Index
- Newspapers and publications
- Cost Books
- Private submissions
- 1535 Tinnners Muster Roll

The following are listed for Bosanko:

Alexander Bosanko	1782	Miner	Wendron
John Bosanko		Foreman	?

What is interesting about this (I printed off the entire list at the time -- it is about 3 inches thick) is not so much the Bosankos that are listed, but all the other surnames that flow into Bosanko lines.

If you can find the website, you might want to take a look and see what other names are on this list that tie in.

Also, the above-mentioned person who has copyrighted this, has included some interesting studies and statistics regarding the immigration to Australia by the Cornish. That with the collapse of the mining industry in Cornwall, there was an active campaign by the mine owners in So. Australia to recruit the Cornish miners. Very interesting.

Hope you can find where this is. I believe I found it on the website for Cornwall, UK

Mary

Description:

Pallot's Index to Marriages covers all but two of the 103 parishes in the old City of London, England. Information available includes: spouses names, marriage date and parish of marriage. The dates span the time from 1780 to the onset of General Registration in 1837. The more than 1.5 million marriage entries come mainly from London and Middlesex, but also include entries from 2500 parishes in 38 counties outside of London-many not available in other sources. Also included are several records from counties in Wales.

m 13 Oct - 1818 Crown

Samuel GRAY was born in Cornwall, England, June 26, 1830, a son of John and Ann (BOSANCO) GRAY. In 1841, John GRAY, with one son, came to America, and settling in Wisconsin, at Benton, Lafayette county, he there engaged in mining for two years. At that time he sent for his wife and the remainder of the family, and later purchased a farm near Benton, where he resided until his death, in 1862, his worthy helpmate surviving until 1874. Both of these good people were consistent members of the M. E. Church, and lived most Christian lives. They left a family of five children: John married and located on a farm in Lafayette county, later moving to Hazel Green where he died in 1892; his wife passed away some two years later, leaving one daughter, Elizabeth A., wife of Edward RODGERS, of Grant county. Henry married Miss Elizabeth L. WILLIAMS, and settled in Hazel Green, where he resided until his death, leaving one daughter, Martha, wife of John JEWELL, of Hazel Green. William, after going to California, married in Hazel Green, Miss Ann PIERCE, went to Boston, and now resides near that city, in a pleasant home, surrounded by an interesting family. Our subject is next in the family. James, educated in Lafayette county, married Mary E. CLEMENS, and settled at Cuba City, where he still resides; he has no family.

Samuel GRAY was but thirteen years old when brought to Wisconsin, and secured a fair amount of education in England and the schools of Lafayette county. After mining in the local mines until 1851, he migrated to California, via New Orleans, over the Isthmus by land, thence by water to his destination. After mining for some time at Placerville, and attaining fair success, Mr. GRAY returned to Wisconsin, via New York, and continued lead mining in this State for a few years, but after his marriage he settled on the old homestead where he greatly improved the property, residing there until 1889. At that date he purchased a fine building site in the Homestead Addition in Platteville, and erected his present pleasant home, where he and his family now are surrounded by all the comforts of life.

On May 31, 1855, Samuel GRAY married Miss Mary SYMONS, daughter of Richard and Sarah SYMONS, prominent people of England, who came to America, and settled in Benton, Wis., when Mrs. GRAY was a child, she having been born in Cornwall, England, in January, 1837; she was educated in the schools of Wisconsin. Mr. SYMONS died Sept. 19, 1900. Of the family born to Mr. and Mrs. GRAY, seven grew to maturity: George H., born April 29, 1856, was educated in Benton and the Platteville Normal, married Lydia STEPHENS, and settled on a farm in Iowa; he has a family of five children, William A., Myrtle, Samuel, Pearl and Edgar. Mary E., born March 31, 1858 was educated at Lafayette and Galena, Ill., married Cyrus PATERSON, of Hazel Green, Wis., and settled on a farm at Hazel Green, Wis.; she died leaving one son, Cyril. Alfred, born Nov. 24, 1860, married Agnes BURKETT, and now resides on his father's farm; he has three children, Aruba, Jennie and Harold. John S., born June 2, 1863, married Eliza BURKETT, of Lafayette county, and resides on his father's farm, near Benton; he has three children, Henry, Sylvia and Clarence. Alice J., born Oct. 12, 1866, graduated at Hazel Green high school and later at the State Normal; she married O. E. GIBSON, one of the leading dentists of Platteville, and has two children, Irvin, born in July, 1893, and Helen, born July 1, 1896. Oliver, born in August, 1870, was educated at Hazel Green, graduating from the high school there, also attended the State Normal, and the State University, at Madison, and is now the superintendent of schools for Platteville; on Dec. 26, 1900, he married Gertrude P. CHASE. Edith, born Aug. 25, 1877, died Dec. 9, 1900; although an invalid for many years, and at times a great sufferer, she was seldom heard to complain; she was one of the most beautiful Christian characters, and many a helpful lesson was learned at her side.

In his political opinions Mr. GRAY adheres to the principles of the Republican party, was a member of the town board of Benton for some six years, and held a number of other local offices, discharging the duties pertaining to each efficiently and satisfactorily. Mr. and Mrs. GRAY, as well as their family, are very prominent in the M. E. Church, of which they are faithful members, and take an active part in all the work pertaining thereto. Few people more richly deserve the prosperity which has come to them than do Mr. and Mrs. GRAY, and they have endeared themselves, by their many excellent traits of character, not only to their immediate family, but to a large circle of acquaintances and friends.

Samuel BOSANKO, enumerated 1851 in Illogan

Posted by Sandy <teylu@home.com> on Wed, 12 Apr 2000

Surname: BOSANKO, JENKIN

Can anyone help me in identifying the origin of one Samuel BOSANKO - prob. born ca 1788 - who was living in Illogan Parish in 1851 and 1854? He is not found in Bawden's transcripts as baptised (or buried) or as having baptised any children in either Illogan or Redruth parishes.

Possibly he might be from WENDRON? Or CROWAN??

(If you have access to these records, would you please check for him?)

I find Samuel in the INDEX of the 1851 Illogan in Folio #369.

Unfortunately, I do not have the full census, so do not know the details it would provide.

Enumerated in Folio #369 are the following BOSANKOs:

Samuel, age 63	1788
Margret, age 50	1801
Salley, age 26	1825
Samuel, age 15	1836
Mary, age 14	1837
Elizabeth, age 10	1841

Index Folios may contain more than one census page and certainly more than one family....so the above may not all be in the same household.

Samuel Bosanko of Carnbrea, Illogan, was present in 1854 at the death of William JENKIN, and Samuel registered William's death. (source: civil death cert. of Wm Jenkin)

I don't know if Samuel and William were just friends, or perhaps there was a familial relationship - I'm trying to determine this.

My relationship is to William Jenkin who was baptised 1796, Illogan, and married (1st) to Mary Ann VINCENT (who died in 1825) and second to Margaret Beagleall/(poss Beaglehole) of Helston.

Thanks for any help with the identity of Samuel. He certainly seems to have left Illogan before dying.

CRASH

on the Concourse!

Cows won't be the only thing to invade the Capitol Concourse on June 7.

Crash, our favorite bike safety "spokes-person," will be cruising the 100 block of Wisconsin Ave. from 8:00 a.m.-noon, during Cows on the Concourse.

With help from his friends at Dean Medical Center and WISC-TV3, Crash will spread the word on the importance of wearing a helmet at this affair on the square.

And since the subject is close to his cushioned and protected heart, Crash will hold a drawing for 12 free bike helmets! Cookies will be served, and kids are invited to help color a giant bike safety mural.

Come on down, because this Bash with Crash will be a smash!

Hi Susan, here is some more info from the census, the address was 17 Mary Lane, Darfield, Grace was born in St. Austell Cornwall, son John was a coalminer and his wife Harriet, 19, was living in the household. She was formerly Harriet Nixon and they were married in Barnsley in 1890, she was born in Sheffield. Also in the home were Florence A. Bosanquet age 2, a granddaughter born in Darfield and Lily Deering also a granddaughter, age 7 months and also born in Darfield. Hope this fills in some gaps!

Hi Susan, There is a Grace Rhoda Bosanquet marrying a Stephen Vincent Deering, in Barnsley in the June quarter of 1890. They then appear in the 1891 census in Darfield West Yorkshire. Grace Rhoda is down as being 17 and born in Flint North Wales. They are living with John Bosanquet, 65 a coal miner born in Truro Cornwall, his wife Grace, 61 and their son John, 20 who was born in Llanelly, South Wales. If you think these are 'your' family I can give you a few more details.

 Welcome to the BOSANKO List Mary Ann. K ***

I am researching the MOON family Crowan and Camborne, Cornwall, England. William MOON b. 6 Oct 1847 was the son of James MOON and Margaret BOSANCO. Margaret was b. 20 August 1820 to Samuel BOSANCO & Margaret RODDA.

I have been unable to find any thing more than Samuel and Margaret's marriage record. Is this the same family that you are researching ---

I would like very much to hear from you.

Thank you

Subject: cousin?

Hi Fayth Harrison,

I believe I may be a descendent of John Bosanko, born 1824. If this is correct, he married Grace Whennan. They had a daughter, Elizabeth, who married Thomas Davies. Their daughter, Sarah Ann, was my ggrandmother. She married William Henry White and they had twelve children, 7 girls and 5 boys. My grandmother, Florence, was the 2nd oldest. Her brother, William, was Judy White Letby's grandfather.

Florence married William Thomas Winstanley. They had 3 girls and a boy. The oldest daughter was my mother, Florence Isabel. She married William Charles Davis and they had 3 girls and a boy. I am the oldest daughter. I have 2 daughters. My daughters each have one girl and one boy. That's my direct lineage. Me, of course, being Catherine Davis Mason of Riverside, CA, USA.

Judy Letby and I between us have found all but one of Sarah's 12 children. The youngest one seems to have disappeared. They are all deceased, but we know where they died, any way, and we have been in contact with many of their descendents. Two of the Sarah's sons were killed in WWI, and my uncle was killed in WWII, and none of them left any descendents.

Kay,

Thank you for answering! I have a cousin who is doing the research on the BOSANKOs right now and also would like to be on the list. Her name is Marilyn Mulliner <mcornish@allwest.net>. She lives in Heber City, UTAH not too far from Salt Lake City so she has been able to do tons of research compared to me. My connection to her is through the WENNEN/WHENNEN family from Camborne, Crowan, Illogan, etc. One of our WENNEN daughters (Grace) married a John Bosanko in 1857. Some of our Wennens lived in Australia.

I am also a member of CFHS along with MLFHS. I was hoping to reach some Cornwall people through my tie to MLFHS and I'm glad I did. I look forward to checking out your web page. Again thank you...Susi Fathauer (Phx.,AZ,USA)

TERAPIA DE RESTRICCIÓN DEL SUEÑO

El propósito de este método de comportamiento es ayudarle a aprender de nuevo como dormir más en un periodo de tiempo más consolidado. Note las palabras: APRENDER DE NUEVO.

¡Es necesario OLVIDAR su patrón de sueño actual!

1. Para empezar, calcule el promedio de horas en total que usted logra dormir cada noche.
2. Escoja una hora razonable para despertarse que sea adecuada para su horario.
3. Escoja la hora de acostarse a dormir basándose en el promedio de horas que usted logra dormir. Usted no quiere pasar EN CAMA más que este número de horas.
EJEMPLO: Usted duerme un promedio de 5 horas cada noche y tiene que levantarse a las 6AM. No se acueste antes de la 1AM.
4. No se olvide levantarse a la hora programada, sin tener en cuenta cuanto durmió.
5. ¡¡¡No duerma la siesta!!!
6. Una vez que usted esté durmiendo aproximadamente un 90% del tiempo que está en cama con regularidad, podrá acostarse 20 minutos antes.
7. Cada vez que usted alcance su meta de dormir un 90% del tiempo que está en cama con regularidad, acuéstese 20 minutos más temprano, hasta lograr una hora de acostarse razonable para su edad y su horario.
8. Siga practicando buenos hábitos del sueño, especialmente en relación al consumo de cafeína y alcohol. Utilice técnicas de relajación a la hora de acostarse.
9. Cuidado--Nunca limite su sueño a menos de 3 ó 4 horas, aunque piense que duerme un promedio de menos de 3 ó 4 horas.

In my possession I also have the U.K. marriage record and birth records for children listed. If anyone wants copies of these records, let me know and I will send them (either e-mail or snail mail).

Anyway, here goes:

Marriage Record shows the following:

Married: May 28, 1849

Marriage solemnized at Parish Church in the Parish of Crowan, County of Cornwall

Registration District of Helston

Name of Groom: John Bosanko

Name of Bride: Grace Whearn [I know spelling is different, but I strongly believe it is the same person as later spelled Whennan/Whennen]

Groom: Bachelor

Bride: Spinster

Profession of Groom: Miner

Residence at time of Marriage: Groom: Crowan; Bride: Crowan

Father of Groom: Samuel Bosanko, Miner

Father of Bride: James Wearn, Husbandman

Witnesses: [I cannot easily read them as some of the characters are missing. It look like John Ring (or King) and says "The Mark X of James [illegible]".

The following certificates are, however, clear and legible.

Birth Records:

1.

Name: Elizabeth Ann

Date of Birth: 10 Aug 1850

Place of Birth: Trenoweth Gate, Crowan

Father: John Bosanko

Mother: Grace Bosanko Formerly Winnan

Profession of Father: Miner

Date of Registration: 15 Aug 1850

2.

Name: Margaret Jane

Date of Birth: 7 February 1852

Place of Birth: Hellogan Ivan, Crowan

Father: John Bosanko

Mother: Grace Bosanko Formerly Winnan

Profession of Father: Miner

Date of Registration: 3 March 1852

3.

4.

Name: John

Date of Birth: 22 March 1857

Place of Birth: Brea, Illogan

Father: John Bosanko

Mother: Grace Bosanko Formerly Whennan

Profession of Father: Copper Miner

Date of Registration: 1 April 1857

I have no information regarding the parents of John Bosanko or his exact birth date, nor the exact birth date of Grace Whennan.

CONNIE:

I did notice on the information I have from the Cornwall Historical Society that there is a marriage record for Samuel Bosanko and Margaret Rodda, married 27 September 1819. Could this be the parents of the above-named John?

Also, you mentioned that John Bosanko and Grace Whennen Bosanko moved to Yorkshire about 1852. Please note: for the above listed children, one was born in 1852 then there is a gap. The next record in Cornwall was 1855. We therefore have a missing child. Yorkshire probably needs to be checked for a birth/death of a child between 1853-54. [Just speculation, but if they moved to Yorkshire, had a child, the child died, then they moved back down to Brea, Illogan, Cornwall.]

I believe this is all I have on John Bosanko/Grace Whennen.

Hi Kay,

Me again, I just was re-reading your email, where you said you did not have the birth date of Grace Whennan\Winnen\Wennen

She was born 13 Mar 1830 Pendarves Mill, Camborne, Corn. Eng.

She died 18 May 1915 in Darfield, Yorkshire, Eng.

Her daughter Frances Bosanko bosrn 5 Jun 1865 married Henry Crofts, 27 Aug 1882 in Merborough, Yorkshire, Eng. Henry, was born 21 Dec 1862

Handsworth, Sheffield, Yorkshire Eng. they had 12 children.

Perhaps this is one reason Grace went to Yorkshire???

I can give you the childrens names if anyone is interested.

Subject: genealogy

Good morning Kay,
Thank you for answering. I would appreciate it if you would put my query out on you Bosanko line, perhaps there is someone else out there that connects to Grace Whennen. I do not remember who I wrote to in Wales, it was on a Bosanko chart that Connie passed on to me. I had a real nightmare with my Williams line. My James Whennan's mother is an Anne Williams, it took me 16 years to figure out that he had been a B. child & that his parents were married 1 month after his birth-thus he had been bapt. James Williams & we were all looking for James Whennen. I have by a miracle traced this line back to the 1500's it took me a year. Then one of the cousins got into Burk's commoners, & it said the Anne Williams I had for his mother had died as a child. I got this book out & checked the pages about this family & found 2 other mistakes according to parish register in Camborne just on the two pages I was looking on. Now, I do not know what to do. did indeed this Anne Williams die as a child, or was it another Anne Williams that is in the burials for Camborne?

(We really are devils for punishment aren't we.) I cannot let this go until I somehow find out, & as far as I can see there is no way to find out. Not enough information given (as usual) in the burials. Grace was raised at Vellan Saundry part of the Pendarves estate. I found an old pedigree chart that takes me clear back to almost the 1400's. This Anne I found, her brother James Williams, is the one who inherits this half of the Pendarves estate. Her father is a James, so why not her son be named James???? It fit perfectly. Then I am told that this girl died as a child. You cannot believe my hornets nest.
Next James the son stays in Camborne, but his parents completely disappear. No more trace of them, not even in the burials. We have no idea what happened to them. Yet James is there raising his children in Camborne. So if someone out there can help, there are several Whennen cousins that would be very grateful.

Thank you so much for the kind offer, I will hold my breath hoping that someone know even the smallest clue.
I believe I have heard your name before, from Laruel Young, Glenelg, Aust.

Hi Kay. Sorry it's taken so long to reply to you - it's been hectic around here. My 13 yr. old step daughter is here for the month and we've been busy replacing fences. But I have now attached the Register for John & Grace (Whennen) Bosanko, showing their descendents as it relates to myself and Catherine Mason, my cousin.. I've also sent a copy to Fayth. We are looking forward to learning more about you and yours in this quest for our ancestry. I noticed from your last email that you are involved in the Free Cen Project. Is there any chance you can lend a hand in locating some records for us? I've hit a brick wall in trying to find my great grandfather, William Henry White. He was married to Sarah Anne Davies, whose mother is Elizabeth Ann Bosanko, dau. of John and Grace. We know he was born in Wick, Gloucestershire in 1870. He married Sarah Ann March 29, 1890 in Middlesbrough, Yorkshire (I have the marriage cert). I have found the family in the 1901 Census and they were living at 15 Louisa Street, Ormesby, Middlesbrough, North Yorkshire. Their last child was born 1905 in Yorkshire. The story goes that he died in WW1 as a sargent major, serving for the British forces, but I can't find a record of his death, or birth for that matter. I've checked the CWG site and found nothing. Sarah came to Canada after he died, and 2 of her sons served with the Canadian Exped. Forces.

She had remarried by that time and her 2 sons and second husband were killed in WW1 also. The sons died 1917 and 1918 and her 2nd husband died in 1917 also. Canada did not enter the war until 1915, so all these dates mean William Henry, her first husband, died sometime in 1914 to 1916. I have found sound census records from 1881 that may be his family but I've no way knowing for sure; Any suggestions?

Regards and look forward to hearing from you.

Las técnicas de visualización le permiten a usted preparar su mente para dormir. Usted no puede quedarse dormido a fuerzas, pero sí puede ayudar a su mente a adoptar una actitud que le permita “encontrarse con” el sueño.

1. Es imposible para la mayoría de la gente poner la mente en blanco. En vez de eso, intente imaginar el telón de un teatro- una cortina de terciopelo de cualquier color. Fíjese como la luz ilumina los pliegues de la tela y espere el comienzo del espectáculo. Por supuesto, no comenzará ningún espectáculo, pero mientras usted se concentra en el telón, ¡bien puede ser que se quede dormido!
2. Otra opción—Imagine un cronómetro, como los que hay en un estadio. Ponga 60 segundos en el cronómetro y con su imaginación mire como pasan los segundos. Esto es mucho mejor que simplemente contar para atrás (o contar ovejas, en realidad) porque estas son cosas que hacemos sin pensar. La técnica del cronómetro requiere de mucha concentración, lo cual distrae su mente de otras actividades. Puede ser que necesite practicar esta técnica pero funciona muy bien.
3. Al hacer estos ejercicios, siempre respire lenta y profundamente.
4. Practique buenos hábitos del sueño—Tenga cuidado con el alcohol, la cafeína y el ejercicio en la noche, etc. Asegúrese de que su dormitorio esté oscuro, fresco y silencioso. Recuerde, si usted se despierta en la noche, ¡NO HAGA nada útil!

Hello, my name is Judie Letby, from Surrey, British Columbia. I have visited your website and have noticed you have done considerable research into the Bosanko line. I'm wondering if you have come across an Elizabeth A. Bosanko born 1852 approx. and married to a Thomas Davies. They are my great grandparents. I found their family listed in the 1881 census of Hoyland, Gloucestershire. Children were Sarah Anne (my grandmother) Esther, Thomas John, Caroline, Herbert and Henry (twins).
On the 1901 census, I believe Thomas and Elizabeth were living in Stockton on Tees, Durham. On the 1881 census, Elizabeth is listed as born in Comorad, but I think that's a transcription error as we can't find that place anywhere. In the 1901 census, she's shown as born Monmouth Nanty Glo. I also found a marriage record registered in Bedwelty 1869, for Elizabeth Bosanko and Thomas Davies which I think is theirs. Also a birth for Elizabeth A. in Helston registered in September 1853 which is about the right time for my Elizabeth.

Being new to geneology and practically illiterate as to where all these places are, I would appreciate any information you may have on this line.

Kay just to let you know Catherine Mason and I are cousins. We are both working on our family tree. Seems we both emailed you about the Bosanko's, however she actually checked out your tree on Ancestry and discovered the connection whereas I was on your website - couldn't find it there. I will be spending some time looking at your tree and figuring out where the connection is which I think at first glance is with Samuel Bosanko and Florence Gundry.

So it looks like we may be the long lost cousins!!!! Is Fayth also part of your family tree as I believe I was in touch with her many moons ago also. I called my Aunt, who is Elizabeth Bozanko's gggranddaughter and she was amazed for sure. She's in her 70's and is amazed at all this internet stuff and loves to hear the progress we're making.

If you want the complete run down on the family from Elizabeth and Thomas Davies, let me know. I have the data stored in Ancestry program. I can probably email you the register.

CRASH

on the Concourse!

Cows won't be the only thing to invade the Capitol Concourse on June 7.

Crash, our favorite bike safety "spokesperson," will be cruising the 100 block of Wisconsin Ave. from 8:00 a.m.-noon, during Cows on the Concourse.

With help from his friends at Dean Medical Center and WISC-TV3, Crash will spread the word on the importance of wearing a helmet at this affair on the square.

And since the subject is close to his cushioned and protected heart, Crash will hold a drawing for 12 free bike helmets! Cookies will be served, and kids are invited to help color a giant bike safety mural.

Come on down, because this Bash with Crash will be a smash!
